What's Up In My Art World?

First, I hope that you are having a SUPER time so far in 2007! It has been super for me and for that I am especially thankful!

Recently, I finished a few commissioned pieces, (untitled and Day Breaks Through the Trees) and am currently working on several more. I am extremely thrilled and grateful to have these opportunities! ☺

Four other new pieces are complete as well: Still Waters at Dusk, Meandering Lights, Sun Rises over Austin, and Mr. Frost. Currently, Sun Rises Over Austin is on display at the Austin-Bergstrom International Airport and will be until April 10, 2007.

There are several art shows around Texas that I will a part of in the next few months, as well as some that are tentative.

In the case that my work is accepted to other shows, as I am continuously looking and applying to other shows, I will notify you as well as post it on the calendar.
